PLANNED GIVING

GIFTS THROUGH YOUR WILL OR LIVING TRUST

A gift to the Friends of the Jefferson City Animal Shelter through your will or living trust is a powerful statement of your support for the Friends mission: to rescue, nurture and restore pets to happy and healthy lives in loving homes. It may also provide a reduction in your taxable estate.

You can arrange a gift of a specific amount, a percentage of your estate, or even part or all of the residue of your estate.

GIFTS THROUGH RETIREMENT, ANNUITY OR INSURANCE PLAN BENEFICIARY DESIGNATIONS

Naming the Friends of the Jefferson City Animal Shelter as the beneficiary of all or a portion of your life insurance policy, annuity or retirement plan is a simple and smart way to help our orphaned pets. It may also benefit your heirs through avoidance of substantial income and estate taxes.

To create a legacy for the the Friends of the Shelter you may name the Friends of the Jefferson City Animal Shelter as beneficiary of a retirement fund, annuity or insurance policy by simply obtaining a beneficiary designation form from your plan administrator or annuity or insurance company.

LIFETIME ARRANGEMENTS

These lifetime arrangements allow you to support the Friends of the Jefferson City Animal Shelter and either have income for your life or the use of your property during your lifetime. In addition to protecting the lives of future pets, these arrangements may provide you substantial income and estate tax benefits.

A. CHARITABLE REMAINDER TRUSTS

These are trusts that you create. During the lifetime of the beneficiary (which can be you, another person, or the joint lives of you and another), you will receive annual income, based on a percentage of the property either valued at the date of the transfer or revalued each year. On your death, the amount remaining in the trust will be transferred to the Friends of the Jefferson City Animal Shelter.

B. REMAINDER INTEREST IN RESIDENCE OR SECOND HOME

You may make a gift to the Friends of the Jefferson City Animal Shelter of your primary residence or a second home while retaining an exclusive life estate so that you (and your spouse) can continue to use it for the rest of your lives.

C. TRANSFER ON DEATH ACCOUNTS

In almost all states, it is possible to own bank or brokerage accounts in your name with the provision that on your death whatever is in the account is transferred to the Friends of the Jefferson City Animal Shelter. You have complete control over the account during your lifetime with the satisfaction of knowing that you have chosen a simple way to assure the continued lives of homeless dogs and cats.
